TAKES THE HOLLY HANDICAP FROM DIVINATION.

Lord Turco a Surprise at a Mile and a Half Salvatella, Amur, Hello and Hoodwink Capture the Other Races at Gravesend-Five Favorites Defeated.

The only stake on the card at Gravesend yesterday was the Holly Handicap for two-year-olds at about six furlongs, and J. E. Madden's Pulsus, carrying top weight, won it by three parts of a length after O'Neill had committed what looked to many to be a foul in the stretch. E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine, who was in receipt of eleven pounds from Pulsus, was the favorite at 13 to 5, while Madden's colt went back in the betting to 16 Madden's coit went back in the betting to 18 to 5. Andrew Miller's Divination, 5 to 1, made a fast pace, attended by St. Valentine and Sweet Gretchen, to the head of the stretch. O'Neill then rushed Pulsus up on the outside and took the lead after clearly bumping Sweet Gretchen. St. Valentine dropped back, and Divination went after Pulsus, who was driven all the way home to win in 1:00 4-5. Divination was two lengths in front of Sweet Gretchen, who beat St. Valentine a head. The crowd expected to see Bullinan go before the stewards with a protest of foul, but the jockey went off to the addock without saying a word.

Surmise was the selection for the handicap for all ages at a mile and a half, closing at twos. Janeway and Warranted also were heavily supported at 13 to 5 and 14 to 5, respectively. Charawind, 60 to 1, and Gold Bell, 12 to 1, went to the front and stayed there for nearly a mile. At the beginning of the Iar turn Burns made his run with Janeway and took the lead, but only for a moment, as Desouza moved up from the back of the bunen with Lord Turco, 7 to 1, who quickly ran over the others and won galloping by lengths in 2:35. Janeway was two lengths before Surmise.

William Astor Chanler's Salvatella, backed down to sixes, took the high weight handicap at about six furlongs. Redfern lay back with her while Memoriam and Little Jack with her while Memoriam and Little Jack Horner ran themselves into the ground, and then came on through the stretch, driving the filly home in front by a half a length over Woodford Clay's Outcome, 10 to 1, with Damon, 10 to 1, a half a length back. Ice Water, the favorite, stopped at the head of the stretch, and taptivator, a good thing at fives, was left at the post, together with Biserta. The time was 1:10 2-5.

J. W. Coit's Amur, favorite, captured the steeplechase, ridden out, by two lengths. Manilian, second choice, after a narrow escape from a foul at the last jump, ran second, twenty lengths in front of Mr. Cotton's Gortnagallah, 20 to 1, who showed marked improvement over his previous race. The distance was about two miles, and the time was 4:08 3-5.

Ered Rurlew cut loose a real good thing in Gorthagalian, 20 to 1, who showed had ac improvement over his previous race. The distance was about two miles, and the time was 4:08 3-5.

Fred Burlew cut loose a real good thing in the fifth race, for two year-olds, at about six furlongs, in Hello, a fine looking coit by Pontiac—Salutation. He was backed down to fives, and securing the rail as he turned into the stretch, he passed Mordella, the favorite, who had made all the running, and beat her by two and a half lengths. Monet, who was always close to Mordella, was two lengths behind. The time was 1:11.

After suffering two defeats in heavy going, Frank Farrell's Watercress filly, Hoodwink, found the track suitable and took the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, after a skilful ride from Fuller. Our Nugget, 20 to 1, tried to make a runaway of it, leading the favorite. McMeekin, to the last furlong. Fuller had kept Hoodwink, who was second choice, under restraint up to this point, but as soon as he let her have her head she dashed up on the outside and won by a length in a drive in 1:47 1-5. McMeekin was a length and a half hefore. Our Nugget, with E. R. Thomas's Stroller a length and a half away.

O'Neill rode two winners, and five favorites lost. The attendance was about 12,000.

TURF GOSSIP AT GRAVESEND. The Bowery Runs Away and Tammany

While the big plungers were getting in their work at Gravesend yesterday, the rank and file of Tammany Hall politicians thought they "had the goods" when they backed former Commissioner F. J. Lantry's colt. The Bowery down to 4 to 1 in the fifth race. The colt went to the barrier full of ginger, and in a moment he had burst his way through the gate, the ribbon catching Desouza around the neck and throwing him to the ground. Then, as The Bowery ran away two miles before being caught, the Tammany crowd shed tears. The colt was withdrawn by the stewards, and the layers kept the money. Willie Shields, trainer of Hermis, is down with an attack of pleurisy.

Khitai, who started in the last race, will be retired. He broke down badly and Dangman, after putting him up at the head of the retired. He broke down badly and Dangman, after putting him up at the head of the stretch, dismounted.

The stewards fined Burns yesterday for rough riding in the Holly Handicap. The jockey cut across Pulsus with Requiter soon after the start and nearly caused a spill. Winkfield, who was responsible for the crowding in the last race on Tuesday, has been suspended by the stewards for the rest of the meeting. Higgins, who was jammed to the rail with Revelation, had his injured foot subjected to X-rays yesterday, and the physicians discovered that several small bones had been broken.

Manilian, who ran second in the steeplechase, appears to be a dangerous horse to ride. On Monday, when in front, he fell at the last jump because he ran through the obstacle instead of clearing it. He did almost the same thing yesterday, Songer having a narrow escape. Songer, by the way, lodged a protest of foul against Amur for crowding him to the rail as they left the turf, but it was not allowed.

There was an unaccountable tin afloat on Ethics in the last race, and the old Dwyer breadwinner was backed down from tens to sixes. Hicks got him away last, and the horse never had a chance.

To settle all controversies, John J. Ryan admitted yesterday that he had won $90,000 on Saturday and $76,000 on Monday, and even more. His operations since then have been light in comparison.

Fuller, Burns and Odom were each fined $25 for various offences at the post.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Howell and Powell. The former had the advantage throughout, while Powell weakened in the eighth inning and was hit safely four times for as many runs. The Browns scored their only run in the first inning on Burkett's two-bugger, Swander's sacrifice and Heidrick's out. After that and up to the ninth inning only two men reached first base. In the third inning Sugden was hit by a foul ball. The ball hit his mask forcing it against the lid of his left eye and cutting a gash an inch long. Davis, who was at the bat, saved him from falling. The New York and St. Louis Americans broke even in a double header yesterday afternoon. Both games were won in the eighth inning by lively batting. In the first game the Browns hit Wolfe at will and at critical stages. Five three-baggers were harvested off his delivery, two of which Anderson made. With the exception of the ninth inning, each figured in the scoring. The New Yorks tied the score in the seventh inning on singles by Fultz and Beyille and Bowcock's must of Hill's throw. St. Louis won the game in the eighth on Conroy's error, Bowcock's three-bagger and Kahoe's three-bagger went foul, and kicked so long that he was put out of the game. Catcher Zeluskey took his place.

The object in adopting this was to get some form of agreement so comprehensively binding that there will be no loophole through which cars of licensed makers can be dealt in alongside of unlicensed cars.

General Manager Day was asked whether anything was done relative to opening or closing the membership door. He said: "No, but so far as those now in the field are concerned the door is very nearly closed. There are more manufacturers outside than inside of the association, but we have made a reckoning during the two days session and found that the licensed makers produced about 90 per cent, of the cars made in the country." DEAD HEAT AT COLUMBUS. New Richmond and Nervolo at Wire Together in Whipping Finish.

COLUMNUS, Ohio, Sept. 23.—The third day's racing of the Grand Circuit meeting here furnished some great sport and the first unfinished race of the week. The 2:08 pace proved a hard fought battle and was not finished. The third was a dead heat between New Richmond and Nervolo, both orses coming under the wire in a whipping finish

Dan Patch went against the world's pacing record of 1:59, and failed by half a second of equalling the mark set by himself earlier in the season. Accompanied by two runners he failed to get to the first quarter pole faster than 30 seconds, and the last two were also made in the same time, precluding the possibility of breaking the record under favorable conditions.

McKinley won the 2:11 trot handily, although Hawthorne did manage to get away with the first heat in comparatively slow time. McKinley equalled his own record of 2:07¼ in the race. Bessie Brown, the favorite, had an easy race in the 2:21 trot.

TROTTING HONORS FOR SWIFT.

OF YEAR, IN A CONTEST.

A Day of Sensations in Racing at Westchester Horse Show-Dark Secret, Another Graduate of the Speedway, Also Comes to the Front—The Awards.

Irrespective of the record-breaking mile of Prince Alert yesterday, the day at the Empire track was one of sensations. It was the first day of the fall meeting of the New York Trotting Club. Swift he fastest mile of the year, 2:07, in a contest and surprised even his warmest admirers. The stouthearted little trotter, who was never seen at his best in the short, sharp work of the Speedway, is now a recognized champion in the winning division.

Another graduate of the Speedway came

Swift was also picked to win at the long odds of $100 to $60 over the field. No one went after him very hard in the first heat, and he won easily in 2:08½. Wentworth, who had been a strong hope of the field buyers after his splendid race last week, made a break near the half-mile pole and finished last.

There was plenty of excitement in the second heat. Bond sent George Muscovite away with all sails set and he trotted around Swift and led at the quarter in 0:31½ and the half in 1:02½. This was a record breaking clip, and the only queston was which horse could carry it far enough to win. The two horses were lapped at the three-quarter pole in 1:34, but in the homestretch Swift came away and won in gallant style the fastest winning mile by a trotter this year. Wentworth came through the homestretch very fast and finished second.

In the 2:08 class pace, Cubanola, was picked.

A horse show and race meeting combined is a novelty to the New York public, and the experiment yesterday at Empire City Park demonstrated that the public welcomed the innovation. While a separate ring had been built in the infield for the show horses, the for the spectators as for those who came to see the contests of speed.

The West Chester show has long been one of the most fashionable events of the outdoor season, and yesterday showed no falling off fashionable equipages, and many merry parties looked on from the perches of four-in-hands. The entries guaranteed a splendid exhibition, and the weather was the crowning glory of a successful opening day. Fourteen classes were shown in all.

Chess Champion Pillsbury played his second match game of the series at the Brooklyn Chess Club with Harry Zirn, the club champion, on Tuesday night, and after a contest lasting forty-eight moves succeeded in placing it to his credit. Pillsbury had the black pieces and defended with the centre counter gambit. The two players entered the middle game with even material, but later on Zirn used poor judgment in the manouvring of his rook and eventually lost that piece without any return. Tonight Pillsbury will be pitted against Charles Curt, another strong player, in a similar game. Pillsbury also tried his hand at the Rice gambit on Tuesday, but without success. Playing the white pieces, he was opposed by C. Curt and L. Blumenfeld in consultation. The allies won three games in succession. In a series of five games with W. Southwick, in which Pillsbury conceded the odds of a rook, the latter won by a score of 3 to 2. pion, on Tuesday night, and after a contest

Words of Truth.

The Rev. Silas C. Fox, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at Warrensburgh, N. Y., was afflicted with serious kidney and liver troubles, and so broken in health that he feared he must retire from the ministry. At this juncture he began to take the world's greatest blood and nerve tonic. He was entirely and permanently cured. Rev. Mr. Fox says:

Dr. Greene's Nervura

"I have been afflicted with kidney and liver troubles, which were very bad. I had contemplated retiring from the ministry, feeling my usefulness was My kidneys were in that conover. dition that they acted twenty times a day. My digestion was impaired and I had sour stomach, but since taking Dr. Greene's Nervura I have not had sour stomach once.

"My kidneys are entirely natural and my nerves are as steady as in youth. My mind is clear and steady. I can start and run now. I had a steady, sharp pain low in my bladder, but now all that is gone. My health is restored, and instead of abandoning my work I am going to open up a new field, feeling quite able to do so.

Now, all this change has come to me through the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, which I feel was providentially sent to me, and the Nervura was an instrument under God for my restoration.

"You may think this pretty strong, but it is perfectly true, every word. I praise the Nervura as a general renovator to all parts of the body, and it apparently strikes every diseased part, bringing it back to its original healthy condition, for which I am more than grateful."

All druggists recommend and sell Dr. Greene's Nervura. Dr. Greene's advice is free. Consult him in person or by letter, 101 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

LONG TRIP SHINING SHOES.

"Saylor's" Round-the-World Tour Interrupted by Sickness. A young man who travels under the name of "Jack D. Saylor" is a patient in the New York Hospital. He was taken there in an ambulance yesterday afternoon from Madison Square Park, where he fell on the walk from an attack of vertigo. "Saylor" declares that his parents are althy, and that they are well known in San Francisco. He says he is a graduate of Stanford University, and that a year ago he made a bet in a San Francisco club that he could travel around the world and make nough money shining shoes to pay his expenses. According to his own story he has shined 7,000 pairs of shoes since he started, including those worn by Senator Mark Hanna. He admits that "Saylor" is an assumed name. He had started in
